PETROLEUM CLUB OF ANCHORAGE MEMBERSHIP APPLICATION

General Membership Policies:

1. All new members shall pay an initiation fee to the PCA, of which no portion will be refunded if a member later withdraws or is terminated from membership for any reason. Monthly dues and any incurred charges are separate from the initiation fee.
2. Memberships in the PCA are held by individuals. Although a company may pay for an individual's membership, the company does not become a member of the PCA. The individual member, not the employer, is responsible for payment of dues which are payable monthly.
3. Memberships cannot be loaned to any other person. Guests must be accompanied by a Member at all times while in the Club.
4. Persons twenty-one years or older, and of good moral character, are eligible for membership.
5. Regular members shall derive greater than 50% of their livelihood from the petroleum or mineral industries. Associate members shall have an interest in the petroleum or mining industries, but not to the extent that they qualify as Regular members.
6. The PCA Membership Committee, along with the Board of Directors, determines an applicant's membership status, Regular or Associate, and that decision is final.
7. If recommended for membership by the Membership Committee, and approved by the Board of Directors, the applicant's name will be posted on the bulletin board of the PCA by the Secretary for a period of ten (10) days, at the expiration of which time, the application shall stand as approved by the Board of Directors. However, if written objections are filed against the applicant by five (5) Regular members with the PCA Secretary within the ten (10) day posted period, the Board of Directors' approval of such applicant shall be nullified.
8. A membership in the PCA may be transferred upon resignation of a member, and upon payment of the appropriate transfer fee, to an applicant for the same membership status. An application form must be filled out for a transfer of membership. The individual transferring the membership must provide a letter naming the applicant receiving the transfer.
9. Resignation from PCA must be presented in writing. All dues and any unpaid charges are payable at that time.

I have read the terms of membership and agree to abide by all the rules and policies of the Petroleum Club of Anchorage, Inc.
