

SUPER BOWL LIII

Book your spot early for the event you want to attend.

To allow our kitchen and staff to plan accordingly for the number of guests we'll be serving, the Club has added "RSVP by" dates to our social calendar. We hope this change will give you, our valued members, a better experience when attending Club events.

Be Our Guest

...just be sure to sign in first. The guest sign in is back at the front desk so please ask your guests to register with us when visiting the club. Having your guests sign in allows us to keep track of who's using the Club and how many times they've visited. Of course, we always encourage you to ask your frequent guests to join the club. Membership packets are available both at the club and on our website, www.petroclub.net.

Have a question about the PCA or how to utilize your membership?

ASK THE CLUB

We asked members to share their questions with us about the Club. Here are a few queries we received last month and the answers to them.

What is the $25 monthly charge on my statement?

Members are charged a monthly $25 minimum. In other words, if you don't spend $25 in food or beverage during the month, you will be charged $25 at the end of the month. This is meant to encourage members to come in and enjoy the club. Remember, the $25 is not a credit, it doesn't roll over.

Speaking of monthly statements, did you know that when using a credit card on the PCA website to make an online payment, that card is saved only for payments made through the website and cannot be pulled by accounting to make other payments? This is set up as a safety measure to protect your credit card information. If you wish to have a specific credit card number on file for your monthly billing, please contact Vicki Myers at vmyers@petroclub.net.

Must I always be the one to pay when I bring guests into the Club?

While everyone loves a free lunch, you don't always have to pick up the tab. Your guests may certainly pay their own way when joining you at the Club. Same goes for events, such as Little Red Dress or a Wine Dinner, which require reservations. Simply let your server know that your guest will be using his or her credit card or cash, so charges won't apply to your member account.

Do you have a question about the PCA? We want to hear from you! Fill out an Ask the Club card next time you visit or email your questions to Sheri Underwood, General Manager at gm@petroclub.net, Tracy Dumas, Communications at marketing@petroclub.net or Kristy Kemp, Events Coordinator at events@petroclub.net.

MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

Dear PCA Members,

The glitz and glitter of the 60th Anniversary Party was so beautiful, the memories made will be with us all for the next 60 years. I would like to thank the entire House Committee and staff of the Petroleum Club for a fantastic evening. There are photos on the website for everyone to look through and enjoy.

I have a couple housekeeping items I want to share with you all. When attending the club for events or just popping in for lunch, dinner or drinks, you will notice that there is a sign-in sheet at the counter. We are asking all members to please have your guests sign in upon arrival. Moving forward, we will continue with this and we are looking into a digital system that will meet our needs.

I would also like to touch on timely payments. The club is a small business and as each of you know and understand well, timely payments from our membership are critical. The bylaws on payment are listed below, so please take a moment to review them and work toward not running up past-due accounts. If you need to make a payment, please contact Vicki to assist. She can be reached at vmyers@petroclub.net. Your support and help with the above two matters is much appreciated and I thank each of you.

Now for the fun stuff...we kick off February with the "American Pride, American Ride - Super Bowl 53 Tailgate Party" on February 3rd. The House Committee has worked hard to put together a fun filled event with some new twists you don't want to miss. Thank you to our two Thursday night sponsors for the month of February; Northrim on the 7th and NANA on the 28th. These are well-attended after work get-togethers that offer a chance for networking and mixing with members and their guests. Finally, our monthly Friday at Five is back on the 22nd. Please stop by for some sips and snack while you enjoy the live music in the lounge.

Respectfully,

- Deirdre Coots, President

PCA Bylaws on Payment of Dues:

Section 3. Payment of Indebtedness & Suspension of Credit: Individual member accounts showing current indebtedness, including dues associated with the member's use of the Club shall be kept by the Treasurer and a statement of such indebtedness shall be mailed to the member on a monthly basis. If a member's indebtedness shall not have been paid within thirty (30) days after the end of the billing period of the member's statement, such member shall be posted on the bulletin board of the Club with the amount of the member's current indebtedness set opposite the member's name and thereafter such member shall not be entitled to the use and privileges of the Club and shall receive no further credit until the member's account has been paid in full. The member(s) shall be notified in writing of their delinquency by the Treasurer. If such indebtedness remains unpaid after posting for a period of thirty (30) days, the Board of Directors may, by resolution, expel such member from the Club. The policy of the Petroleum Club and its Board of Directors is and has been NOT to waive fees or dues for any members except for Charter members who are retired and live in Anchorage, Alaska

Who Says You Can't Get a free lunch?

Each month someone's member number will be hidden within the pages of the newsletter. If it's yours, tell us where it was hidden, and we'll treat you and a guest to lunch at the Club (gratuity not included). Last month's number was hidden in the picture of men at a business lunch on page 7. We're sorry you missed out on a free lunch but hope this month's member will be a winner. Good luck and thank you for reading The Pipeline!

Join the Club

The PCA recently celebrated 60 years of membership. What's kept a small, private Club like ours in business for so long? Several reasons.

1. Service – If you frequent the Club, then everyone will know your name. Not only other members, but also the staff. From being greeted at the door with a familiar smile to having the bartender know just how to mix your favorite drink before you ask for it, the Club provides members with a friendly, stress-free atmosphere.
2. Social Connections – the Club is a great way to expand your social circle. Since you already have a PCA membership in common, you likely share other similar interests. With a variety of social events such as the Super Bowl Party, Wine Dinners, Golf Tournament and Networking Dinners, the possibility of making new friends is endless.
3. Business Connections – networking is one of the greatest benefits of a private club membership. In addition to regular networking events, simply coming in on your lunch hour or for an after-work cocktail is another way to make new contacts.
4. Dining Out – with a lunch buffet that changes daily, weekly specials and a system that allows you to make reservations, dining at the Club is simple and comfortable. You'll always find your favorites (or something new to try) on the menu and enjoy the great service you expect each time you visit.
5. Access – whether it's an anniversary party, political fundraiser or important business meeting, membership comes with the privileges of renting space when you need it. Remember, PCA members are not charged for room rental and you have the added benefit of a professional event planner to help you with the details.
6. Reciprocal Clubs – traveling out of state or abroad? Chances are, there's a reciprocal club you can utilize in the place you're visiting. To see the list of more than 150 clubs we have agreements with, go to www.petroclub.net and look under the Our Club tab.

We value our members and appreciate your patronage. Know someone who's interested in joining? Share this article and encourage them to check out one of the best venues in Anchorage.

University Club of Washington D.C.

Take a trip to the nation's capital and visit the PCA's new reciprocal club.

Just a few blocks from the White House, you'll find The University Club of Washington, D.C. Voted one of the top distinguished City Clubs in America, the University Club of Washington, D.C. is all about elegance, tradition, sociability and a celebration of intellectual pursuits. Since its inception in 1904, the club's motto has been "Enter all ye who have a degree of good fellowship and learning."

The club's first president was William Howard Taft, who was then serving as Secretary of War and later went onto become the country's 27th President. Under Taft, membership grew prompting the club to move into a larger facility from its original meeting spot in the city's Willard Hotel. Construction costs were raised from the sale of 2,000 shares at $100 each and in 1912, Taft laid the cornerstone of the project. The good times were rolling for members until the Great Depression when membership numbers took a dive. At the same time, another organization, the Racquet Club of Washington, was looking to build but also feeling the pinch of the economy. The two groups decided to join in 1936 and become the club that it is today.

The University Club offers world class cuisine in its dining room including aged steaks, tender veal and soft-shell crab. More casual fare is available in The John J. Pershing Grille (named after the hero general from World War I, who was also a member), Sports Lounge and in the Founder's Pub. Banquets and catering are also available for private or business functions. The Club offers live music on weekends, a pool table, popcorn machine and three large screen TVs in the lounge.

On-site accommodations include 57 beautiful rooms which combine the comforts of home with luxurious hospitality, a 24-hour business center, a 3,000 square foot fitness center with personal trainers, two squash courts, Olympic sized indoor pool, day spa with a wide array of treatments, locker and laundry service, meeting/private event rooms and a library with a reading room. Nearby points of interest include The White House, The Treasury Department, St. Matthew's Cathedral and many other D.C.-area monuments and museums. Make plans to spend time at the historic University Club of Washington the next time you find yourself in the D.C. area.

friday AT FIVE

What are you doing Friday night? You should be at the PCA for Friday at Five. Join us the last Friday of the month for food, drinks and live music. This month's musical guests are Adam Bartlett and Forest Wilson.

Mr. Bartlett, who plays with the band Hot Club of Nunaka, has been playing music since he was four years old, including classic guitar with a focus on the music of Spain and South America. Several years ago, the sounds of Django Reinhardt caught his attention and now he exclusively plays gypsy jazz and swing music.

Mr. Wilson studied music at UAA and performs across Alaska with several bands, including Swing 49. He also shares his talents through teaching guitar, banjo, bass, mandolin and ukulele. Swing into your weekend with the upbeat sounds of these great local musicians and stay for the food, drinks and socializing Friday, February 22nd starting at 5:00 p.m.

See you at the Club!

*Thank you to PCA member, Ms. Katy Nalley for providing musician bios.
